

What are the aims and intentions of this curriculum?

Students are to study two different units of the Creative iMedia course, which helps provide knowledge of how IT is used in a creative way. They will study a unit on Creating Interactive Products which includes the process of designing, creating and testing an interactive product. Students will also study a website unit which allows the students to create a webpage using industry standard software.

Term	Topics	Knowledge covered	Skills developed	Assessment
Autumn 1	Creating Interactive Media Products	LO1: Understand the uses and properties of interactive media products.	Students will develop their skills to be able to understand where different interactive products are used and their purpose. Students will also be able to identify key elements such as colour schemes, layouts and accessibility.	Coursework
Autumn 2	Creating Interactive Media Products	LO2: Be able to plan an interactive media product	Students will develop the ability to plan and design an interactive product to meet a requirements needs. They will create different design documentation	Coursework
Spring 1	Creating Interactive Media Products	LO3: Be able to create an interactive multimedia product LO4: Be able to review interactive multimedia products	Students will use industry standard software to create an interactive product to meet a client needs. Students will then review their interactive product and identify areas for improvements.	Coursework
Spring 2	Creating a Multipage Website	LO1: Understand the properties and features of multipage websites. LO2: Be able to plan a multipage website.	Students will develop the ability to understand the different properties and features that are included on website such as laptops, mobiles and tablets. Students will plan a multipage website to meet a client need using a range of different methods.	Coursework
Summer 1	Creating a Multipage Website	LO2: Be able to plan a multipage website. LO3: Be able to create a multipage website using multimedia components.	Students will plan a multipage website to meet a client need using a range of different methods. Students will develop the ability to create a multipage website to industry standard using intelligent software.	Coursework
Summer 2	Creating a Multipage Website	LO3: Be able to create a multipage website using multimedia components. LO4: Be able to review a multipage website	Students will develop the ability to create a multipage website to industry standard using intelligent software. Students will then review their website and identify areas for improvements.	Coursework